would have aboard the whaler. When I sat down to meals I realized how good they were and wondered how I would fare aboard the whaler. As I walked the streets and went about my work I realized how good the town was after all and what a good position I held. But, I had made up my mind to go whaling so awhaling I must go. The whaling schooner was now anchored in the stream and could easily be seen from our workroom windows. I used to go to work early so as to look at her with the telescope before the other workers got there. I hadn't told anyone of my plans but the boss and my brother. I was afraid I would be turned down at the last minute and get the razz! I went to a banquet at the King Philip Inn. While there I told Cayton of my plans. His father had spent eight years whaling. Cayton talked to me with tears in his eyes, trying to persuade me not to go. But by this time I was just crazy to go. Nothing could stop me if they would only ship me. Cayton told me how the cockroaches would eat the dirt from under my toe nails and that the drinking water was so full of roaches that one would have to strain them through

MATTAPOISETT WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

Mrs. J. Newton Barrows will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club to be held on February 26th at 2 P.M. in the parish hall of the Congregational Church. Mrs. Barrows' subject, "Antique Dolls", is bound to bring a touch of nostalgia for the members as she shows slides of dolls of yesteryear and "presents" several of them "in person". She has had an active interest in this unique hobby for a number of years and has recently returned from a doll convention. Any member who has a doll she would like to show to Mrs. Barrows may bring it with her to the meeting.

Board members should note that the executive board meeting planned for February 19th has been postponed until 1 P.M. of the 26th, just before the regular meeting. This will enable more to attend "Federation Day at the State House" on the 19th, reservations for which may be obtained by calling Mrs. George King.

EDITOR'S NOTICE

The following two letters concern the most sweeping change ever proposed for the structure of government services of the town of Mattapoisett. Both oppose the change. Personally, I feel no need for this drastic change at this time, so I align myself with the opposition. So that the citizens of Mattapoisett can be informed as to both sides, I appeal to any person who feels that the proposed establishment of a DPW is a good step for this town, to write in support of the measure for publication next week. Please let me have your letter before Friday, February 20th, so that we can include it in the February 25th issue. DCJ

WHAT DOES PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT MEAN TO MATTAPOISETT?

It means you no longer will have the privilege of voting for your Highway Department Superintendent, your Water Commissioners, your Wharf Commissioner, your Tree Warden and your Herring Inspector. It also means more loss of Home Rule, that privilege which is slowly slipping away from us. Let's not push it further

The Nation's biggest problem in this decade will be the preservation of its natural resources.

If you are concerned over the health and future well-being of this town, if the pollution of our natural heritage appalls you, then do something about it.

As a member of the Board of Health, I will fight vigorously for the enforcement of our State and Town Health Laws.

away ourselves.

It means, further, that your tax rate will be increased by at least $30,000 to $40,000 to support a Public Works Superintendent, his assistant, his secretary, office and car. All this to have one man, the Public Works Superintendent, supervise eight men, the present permanent work force of the combined Highway and Water Departments. So, for about $3,750.00 per man there will be one boss telling them their job which they have been doing efficiently for many years. It might be better to give each man one-half of this $3,750.00 to better his pay for a job well done. A Public Works Department sometimes works fairly well in a town having a permanent work force of 40 to 50 men or more. However, Mattapoisett is still a small town with a small work force compared to such towns as Dartmouth and Falmouth where there are D.P.W.s with 40 to 60 men in the work force.

Under this legislation, the Selectmen will appoint three of the five Public Works Commissioners. Why can't the voters elect the majority of the Public Works Commissioners and let the Selectmen appoint two?

All we are trying to do is to get the voters of Mattapoisett to think about the many issues involved in this repeal of the existing town government. If you really think about it you will vote NO.

Let's not legislate further encroachments on the few privileges we now have.

TO THE VOTERS OF MATTAPOISETT:

At the annual election of Town Officers on March 2, 1970, there will appear on the ballot the following question: "Shall an Act passed by the General Court in the year 1969, entitled 'An Act authorizing the town of Mattapoisett to establish a board of public works exercising the powers of certain other departments and town officials' be accepted?"

I would urge the voters of the town not to accept this legislation.

I am opposed to this legislation for two reasons.

In the first place, I do not believe that the voters of this town have been fully informed as to the pros or cons of this particular legislation. I personally consider this legislation an important change in the fundamental structure of our town government. In order to vote for such a change I believe that voters should have had the opportunity to actually discuss the proposed legislation at a town meeting.

To the best of my knowledge the voters have only been shown a copy of the legislation on one occasion, and that was on May 1, 1968, almost two years ago, when it appeared in this newspaper.

I firmly believe that the voters of this town have a right to know what they are being asked to vote on; and I just as firmly believe, in this instance, that this is not the case. I believe in fairness to the voters this matter should not have been presented in the manner it was.

Secondly, I oppose certain aspects of the legislation itself.

While I confess to be as ill informed as the next voter on this matter and therefore, not in a position to pass a mature judgment on the entire bill, I do object to what I consider some fundamental defects.

The Board of Public Works will take over, among other things, the duties of the building inspector. What effect does this have on zoning? What effect does it have on our new Building Code by-law? This proposed legislation causes unnecessary confusion in this area.

We talk so much about "home rule" and yet we ask the Legislature to take away our right to govern. Do you realize that the proposed legislation prohibits the town from revoking its acceptance for five years, and thereafter limits your right to vote on the question of revocation to once every three years?

I mean to be critical of no one by this letter. But I believe that approval of this legislation is not in the best interests of the town.

Respectfully submitted,
Donald J. Fleming
Town Moderator

A Star-Spangled Show!

"GEORGE M!" COMING NEXT WEEK

The annual presentation of a major musical by the O.R.R. Music and Drama Departments is a rare treat for area residents. It is a chance to see a first class production of an internationally notable musical show, in the convenience of one's own neighborhood. There are no parking problems; the theater is attractive and accommodating. Most interesting of all is to watch the inspired and talented performances given by our own Regional High School students under the professional guidance of their able directors.

Veteran fans of previous shows must be legion. Despite the school's brief history of less than a decade, it can boast a glowing roster of six superbly successful productions of leading Broadway Shows.

It all started in 1963, with a production of "Oklahoma!" that so thrilled capacity audiences, everyone said, "What can they possibly do next to even match this?" Incredibly, it seems that each year's show does match the polish of the preceding one, indeed, surpasses it. After "Oklahoma!"

we were delighted with "Pajama Game", "Carousel", "South Pacific," and "Camelot".

Last year's perfectly marvelous production of "Oliver!" was such an awesome success that those involved in this year's selection might naturally experience feelings of trepidation.

To the contrary! Those involved in this year's production of the flamboyant musical, "George M!" are positively convinced this is to be the best show ever seen on stage at O.R.R. With such spectacular show-stopping, star-spangled songs as "Yankee Doodle Dandy", and "You're A Grand Old Flag" in the show line-up, it does indeed seem as though a rousing evening of entertainment is in store for fortunate area residents.

February 27th and 28th are the dates; curtain time is 8:15 P.M. Bristol Auditorium at O.R.R. is the place.

Tickets are now available in Marion at Browne's Pharmacy, in Mattapoisett at the Symphony Shop and Tinkham's Pharmacy, and in Rochester at Lloyd's Market.

WE WANT TO RE-ELECT

DAVID N. "Bud" HALEY

SELECTMAN

We are impressed with his contributions to the businesslike running of Town affairs.

His explanations of Town problems at Town Meetings, and various public hearings, have been complete, concise, helpful and honest. His suggested courses of action have proven again and again to have been in the best interest of the town.

We like the Haley record of spending when needed and economizing whenever possible.

Perhaps most important is the consistent trait of listening to all of the voters, making decisions based on the facts and following through.

RE-ELECT HALEY, IT'S IMPORTANT TO THE FUTURE OF OUR TOWN

O.R. Artists Exhibit

ORRHS ART DEPARTMENT EXHIBIT

The Old Rochester Regional High School Art Department in cooperation with Mrs. Sarah Brown of Mattapoisett and the Unitarian Church, Union and Eighth Street, New Bedford, is currently having an art exhibit through the month of February.

Miss Deborah Krieder, a senior artist in the department, organized the preparations for the current exhibit. All the works displayed were selected by a panel consisting of Susan Beauregard, Christine Bertram, Deborah Krieder, Nicole Moody, Janet Stratton, Christine Hayward, Teresa Ilsley and Mr. Anthony Domingos, Head of the Art Department. Sculpture, ceramics, paintings, drawings and prints make up the three room display in the church.

The Art Exhibit is open to the public at the church, Union and Eights Street, New Bedford, Monday through Friday from 9:30 A.M. to 4:00 P.M., Saturday afternoons from 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M., and Sunday mornings and afternoons 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Hope . . . Editorial

Once in a while, there is a reversal in the constant erosion of respect for the law. The trial of the Chicago group arrested for leading disturbances during the Democratic Convention contains a glimmer of hope. The disgraceful mockery of the court, the judge, the U. S. and everything else that a decent citizen treasures has not gone unnoticed after all. Judge Julius Hoffman has shown the destroyers of society that they cannot spit upon justice and remain untouched. It is high time that people who honor our system of justice had encouragement that it will survive the thugs. D.C.J.

I was all ready to go so I kept right on with my work so that I would get a full pay. I was sent out to get a few measures and got back about eleven-forty. As soon as I got in the room Connors said I hope you're not disappointed but the schooner has left. think I was tricked at last. I rushed to the phone to tell Mosey just what I thought of him. When I got connected I asked if the boat had sailed. Then the load was taken off my heart. He told me that she had just been towed down to Butler's Flats and was getting ready to sail. I told me to be sure and be down there at 2 o'clock. The boat was going to sail Saturday at the latest and most likely it would sail Friday if it could get away.

That noon I said goodbye to my fellow workers and drew my pay. Although they shook my hand and bid me goodbye they would not believe that I was going away, let alone whaling.

Well, I got down to the outfitters about quarter past two and signed up. As I looked over the sheet I saw mostly Portuguese names.

I was just aboard the schooner about the middle of the afternoon and was first greeted by Mr. Tripp.* He made a very favorable impression. I went below, picked out my bunk and made myself to home.

he told him Buckley and you would make a good pair. Well, it can't last forever.

Sunday, July 12th - Another Sunday. When I get home will try to spend Sunday as it should be spent. Lowered for whale at 5, got back at 8:45. Larboard boat got one whale. Starboard boat got fast but whale parted line. That makes seventeen whale we got in all. Our whale got line from other boat in its mouth and ran with it. Good breakfast this morning. Heave and slip at 10. U. S. Government boat passed us and raised a signal. Wonderful Sunday. Whale all around ship. Been throwing fresh water overboard all afternoon. They have done this before. They will only let us have one bucket of water to wash clothes in. Decks are covered with blubber again. I can't write much here for the work is the same over and over. But it is a good way to keep track of time. Had 3 good meals today. My stomach is full. I get enough to eat now but there is no energy to the food after I get through eating. I am still hungry. It is quantity and not quality that we get. Well two more Sundays, then we can look towards home. I think of everything out here. All day to-day I had been thinking of my mother playing hymns and singing. One was Trust and Obey For There Is No Other Way and Rock of Ages Cleft For Me. They have been going through my mind all day. I also dreamt of Helen last night. She was cooking up a feed and waiting on me and was glad to see me home.

Talk about backaches. We have plenty here. I don't know which is the worst, the backaches or the heartaches.

I have to sneak a few minutes when I eat to write this down, that's why it's not very good. I just write a few lines at a time. I am on duty from daylight to dark with hardly any time off to eat. The whale we got to-day was a full grown cow with a white head and big teeth. I got all specked up with blood when the whale raised the American Flag. My shoulders and face were covered.

Monday, July 13th - They were so hungry for whale that we got more on board then we could handle. So a whole cask of junk went sour. This morning I had to stand over the cask and wring out the junk by hand. The dirty rotten decaying stuff. What a stink. My bunk smells so bad I
